2014 Season Outlook:

Manager Quote: I feel like we have a nice mix of experienced returners and some young additions to the program. We should be able to play some guys at there strongest positions on a more consistent basis and I think this will make us a much better team on that side of the field. Offensively we should have a nice combonation of power and speed. A lot of our success will definetly depend on our pitching so we will see where we are at in that regard when we open preseason against Portland State University.
