

February 22, 2016

Seven Local Sponsors Sign on for 2016 NCBA/NCSA Spring Training Showcase

Pittsburgh, PA – The National Club Baseball and Softball Associations are heading down to Tampa, FL for the 11th Annual Spring Training Showcase throughout the month of March. A total of 65 NCBA teams and seven NCSA will lace up their cleats, with teams coming from all across the United States to participate.

The Press Box will feature a “Spring Training Team Night” where teams can take advantage of a 20% discount on their food bill. As Tampa’s original sports emporium and eatery for 25 years The Press Box is second to none when it comes to fine dining and atmosphere.

Walter Hill, owner of The Press Box, stated “The Press Box has been supporting local sports teams for over 30 years. The Press Box tries to give back to the community and is looking forward to being a sponsor of the 2016 Spring Training Showcase for yet another year!” The Press Box also features “Burgermania” on Monday’s, which feature $5.99 burgers served all day. On Tuesday’s at The Press Box teams can also enjoy $.50 Buffalo wings.

VP of Spring Training Operations, Savannah Ahrens stated, “The 2016 NCBA/NCSA Spring Training Showcase is sure to be a success! The support from local businesses has really made this event a truly amazing experience for our teams, parents and fans.”

In addition to the featured Team Night at The Press Box, every NCBA athlete participating in the 2016 Spring Training Showcase will receive a Player VIP Card. Valid from February 26th through March 27th. Each card offers an exciting range of discounts and deals at local area businesses and restaurants. Participating businesses include The Press Box, Tampa Joe’s, Subway/Circle K, Hooters and Charann’s Tavern.

For more information about the 2016 NCBA Spring Training Showcase, visit the event homepage or contact NCBA/NCSA Spring Training VP of Operations Savannah Ahrens at Savannah.Ahrens@CollClubSports.com

