2016 PREVIEW GUIDE

Team Name: Purdue University

Mascot: Boilermaker

Location: West Lafayette, IN

Captain(s)/Coach(s): Coach - Luke Versprille
Captain - Aaron Gegg

2014-15 Performance:

- Record: Overall: 10 - 5, Conference 8-4
- Final Conference Ranking/World Series Results: 2nd in Conference
- Notables: Athletes in Action Tournament Champions (Xenia, Ohio), notable victories against Illinois State, and University of Illinois towards the end of the season

Number of Returning Players (Include conference/league award winners): 16 Returners

Players to Watch: Senior P/OF Aaron Gegg looks to continue, and finish, his incredible career as a Boilermaker through his versatile abilities on the mound, in the field and at the plate. Junior P/OF Chad Mateja will look to start and finish strong in many of the same ways, while Junior 1B/P Andrew Arroyave may be the Boilermaker's dark horse and return to the mound for the first time in over a year. The Boilermaker's lineup will be complimented by strong performances in the field from Senior SS Patrick O'brien, and Senior OF James Duckmann. The Boilers will turn to the rest of its large upperclass to lead the team to its first post-season appearance in Club history. This will also be the year that the team's Sophomores, including INF Nick Richter, P/OF's Mike Smith and Steven Lorenz, find their stride and build off of the team's recent successes.

New additions: Junior transfer Kyle Joyce has established himself as a premier leadoff hitter for the Boilermakers, while Freshman new-comers Matt Jaskowiak and Jason Rothstein will look to make big impacts in the field and at the plate in their first conference season. Transfers Garrett Pferrer, Alex Wiezcorek, and Jason Ferguson have also joined the lineup looking to make an impact.

Biggest Rival: Indiana University

Best Player Nickname: Chad "Varsity" Mateja, James "Duck" Duckmann

2016 Season Outlook: With an early conference sweep of Indiana University this fall and a Championship at the Saluki Slugfest tournament, the Boilermakers are looking to make a run for their first post-season appearance and have already started off on the right foot. Purdue has built a team with incredible depth, and has over 12 pitchers ready to step in and dominate at any moment. After last year's loss in the last game of the season against Illinois State, a Win would have sent the Boilermakers to regionals, the team got right to work knowing it missed a great opportunity. This year's squad is determined to make sure that same feeling doesn't come back, and has set out with great drive to succeed on and off the field. Purdue will be returning to Spring Training in Plant City this March, and is looking forward to showcasing a team unlike any other. The Boilermakers have a great 2016 ahead of them, and their successes will come from great efforts throughout their roster no single players' importance will be overlooked this season. Boiler Up!

2016 PREVIEW GUIDE

Team Name: Northwestern University

Mascot: Wildcats

Location: Evanston, Illinois

Captain(s)/Coach(s): Shane Mulhern & Shoma Murakawa

2014-15 Performance:

- Record: 8-12
- Final Conference Ranking/World Series Results: 4th
- Notables: Win @ UW-Madison

Number of Returning Players (Include conference/league award winners): 16

Players to Watch: Shoma Murakawa, Thomas Sanford, Austin Johnson, Shane Mulhern

New additions: Bowen Gerould, Matt McClure, Isaac Lee, Matthew Lees, MJ Butler, Jason Blacher, Max Goodman, Patrick Lin, Justin Halpern

Biggest Rival: Central Michigan

Best Player Nickname: Pauly Walnuts

2016 Season Outlook: After one of our most successful falls in recent years, Northwestern is ready to make a run at the conference title and into the playoffs. Finishing third place in the Spartan Invitational with key close wins over BIG rivals Michigan State and Indiana provided the momentum for the Wildcats to take the first two conference games over reigning champs UW-Milwaukee and sit atop the conference heading into 2016.

2014-15 Performance:

- Record: 15-6
- Final Conference Ranking/World Series Results: 2 at large birth to regional
- Notables: Youngest team we've ever fielded in our history.

Number of Returning Players (Include conference/league award winners): 16

Players to Watch: A roster full of proven performers entering their 2nd and 3rd years. I could list almost any returner in this section.

New additions: Tyler Safgren, Colten Demorett, Mike Hansen, Alex Noel, Josh Liberko

Biggest Rival: UWM

Best Player Nickname: Newbs (Nick Newburg)

2016 Season Outlook: I'm as excited about the potential of this team as any I have coached. We had the youngest team we have ever fielded last year and this year we are still young, but experienced. Even some of the new additions are NCAA transfers with a lot of baseball experience. Our pitching staff should be an extreme strength. We return almost all innings from last year and add two other top of the rotation quality pitchers to that group. We have the pitching depth necessary to easily handle 5 games in a weekend that may be required during a Regional tournament. That benefits us in a W.S. too obviously but those games are more spread out. Our best offensive lineup and our best defensive lineup are both outstanding... although are not one in the same. Finding that balance will be a key. At times we put up ridiculous offensive numbers this fall, but also struggled to produce runs in our fall conference series. I am hopeful and confident we'll find our stride again. Our team speed is slightly above average. We always do a nice job of using what speed we have to our advantage and I suspect this year will be no different. We added a couple of nice power bats to the lineup which is key consider we lost two middle of the order hitters from last year.

Best Player Nickname: Mitch Meyer - "The Boy Wonder"

2016 Season Outlook: After a conference championship and resilient showing in regionals, the Illinois Club Baseball team finished an 18-3 season with back-to-back losses in the World Series. However, the 2016 team is primed to be even stronger than last year. Illinois returns 7 of 9 starters in the field, including two All-Region Players in Mitch Meyer and Brandon Lee. Seniors Keenan Connelly and Matt Robare will lead a deep and potent batting lineup, which features talented newcomers Luke Wians and Ben Samborn. Joe Kadela, a 3rd Team All Region selection, and Bryce Richter head a formidable pitching rotation, while newcomers Chris Simon and Bryan Englesen are expected to contribute significantly. The Illini will be coached by Matt Robare, a senior outfielder and pitcher, who will lead a hungry and talented Illini team determined to make another World Series run.

Manager Quote: "We have high expectations for the upcoming season. Although we have lost some significant talent, experience, and leadership from last year, we are very confident in the abilities of both our newcomers and returning players. We project to have a dynamic line-up combining speed and power backed by a bullpen stocked with many quality arms. With a majority of our team having been to

Team Name: Illinois State

Mascot: Redbirds

Location: Normal, IL

Captain(s)/Coach(s): Donny Kirk-President, Alex Gabbard-Vice President

2014-15 Performance:

- Record: 11-8 Overall, 5-7 in Great Lakes South
- Final Conference Ranking/World Series Results: 4th in Great Lakes South Conference
- Notables: Beat #2 Ranked Pittsburgh at Spring Training

Players to Watch: Harley Miller-P, Conor Funk-2nd, Kurt Kaufman-OF, Donny Kirk-3B/DH, Tyler McKenzie-1B/DH, Nolan Sammer-1B/DH, Chuck Shempf-3B/Utility, Kory Klicker-OF/DH, Brian Albaugh-P, Alex Gabbard-C, Jake Kolakowski-P. Harley Miller is a transfer junior that impressed many in the fall. Looking most likely as a starter, the Redbirds will look to get many solid innings from the new and experienced arm. Conor looks to build on a very successful sophomore campaign which saw him finish the season with a very high average and great power numbers. With a move to second base, the Redbirds will continue to look for big things in now his 3rd season of club ball. Kurt looks to bounce back from a somewhat tough season. With an unlucky season at the plate filled with line drives right at the defense, he looks to find the gaps and provide outfield leadership in his final season with the Redbirds. Donny looks to continue to provide leadership and consistency at the plate as he wants to close out his club career with a national tournament run (which would be the first in club history). Tyler is a transfer senior that has big upside. With plenty of power to spare at the plate and a solid glove at first, he looks to get some innings potentially at first and the designated hitter role and help solidify the middle of the order. Nolan Sammer is only one of 2 players on the team with 4 years of club ball experience and the Redbirds will hope for a big campaign to cap off a very successful career. Consistency at the plate and at first base, along with continued leadership, are the keys to success for Nolan. Chuck continued to provide versatility for the Redbirds last year and that will be looked upon to continue in 15-16. With stellar defense at the hot corner and a smooth lefty swing, big things are expected from Chuck for the spring season. Kory looks to be an potential X-factor for the Redbirds. With a great eye at the plate and an extremely smooth lefty bat, Klick can be a great addition to an already exciting lineup full of possibilities for this season. Brian will be looked upon for big innings. With a solid first season, a steady improvement is expected. With a solid selection of pitches and a gamer's mentality, Brian will be a huge key for success if the Redbirds hope to make it to Paducah. Alex is expected to provide leadership behind the plate and a big leap at the plate. Struggles hindered Gabbard last season but huge improvements are expected from the VP. With a great mentality behind the plate and continuing to improve his swing, the sky is the limit for Gabbard in his final season for the Birds. Jake will look to help complete the top of the rotation. The other player with 4 years of experience on the team, experience and consistency are the trend for Jake. After an up and down season, Jake looks to become a consistent starter for the Redbirds as he looks to close out his career with a bang.

Biggest Rival: University of Illinois Fighting Illini

Best Player Nickname: The Original Don, Cookie, Pappa Gabs, Kurt Nasty, Chuckie Swag, Jake the Snake, Beef Stew, Klickman Klickmeister

2016 Season Outlook: After an extremely successful 2013-2014 season, which featured the club's first Regional trip (and almost national tournament berth), the Redbirds had a down 2014-2015 season. After a great Spring Training Trip, which saw a 6-1 record (including beating #2 ranked Pitt), the conference season didn't fall ISU's way. With the strength of the conference drastically improving, the Redbirds only managed a 5-7 record in conference. Going into the 2015-2016 season, many new additions and experienced returners have gathered to form a very formidable squad. With a great fall tryouts/season (including great games against #14 in the final polls last year Ohio U and the #3 ranked team to finish the year in D2 St. Louis), the Birds are flying high headed into the spring season. ISU will again return for another fantastic trip to Plant City, FL and the NCBA Spring Training. After 7 Non-Conference games in the amazing weather, a return to Conference play awaits the Redbird. With the addition to Notre Dame, Illinois making the World Series tourney last year, Purdue winning the Saluki Slugfest, and Indiana winning the Battle Creek Blast, competition is stiff in the Great Lakes South this coming season. The Redbirds are still confident that this will be the year the NCBA will see them in the national tournament conversation. The competition for starting spots will be intense and many players have a chance to start and play significant time. Any lineup and starting rotation combination is a dangerous threat and could lead to any sort of possibilities. If all goes in the favor of the Birds, Illinois State could well be on there way to Paducah for the National Tourney.
