NCBA Signs Four-Year Extension with Rawlings as the Official Baseball of the National Club Baseball Association

The National Club Baseball is eager to announce that Rawlings Sporting Goods will continue to hold the title of “Official Baseball of the National Club Baseball Association” for the 2016-2020 seasons. Rawlings features R1NCBA baseballs that will be stamped with the NCBA Logo and feature the Commissioner Signature. NCBA (DI) teams will receive (six) dozen baseballs each year courtesy of the National Club Baseball Association, while NCBA (DII) teams will receive (five) dozen.

Rawlings Account Manager Craig Budzik stated, “Rawlings features the top of the line baseball and we are excited to continue to have them on board for the next 4 years. The quality leather, NCBA logo and commissioner signature on each baseball allows our teams to play with the top baseball on the market.”

In addition to featuring the Official Baseball of The National Club Baseball Association, Rawlings Sporting Goods is also the Official Uniform Provider of the NCBA. Rawlings is also the Apparel & Equipment Provider of CollClubSports. Rawlings offers NCBA, NCSA, NCFA, and NCBBA teams apparel and equipment at discounted rates.

CEO of CollClubSports Sandy Sanderson stated “Rawlings has been the Official Apparel & Equipment Provider of CollClubSports for over 10 years! Our relationship with Rawlings has provided our NCBA, NCSA, NCFA, and NCBBA teams will quality products at discounted rates. We are thrilled to have Rawlings on board as the Official Baseball provider of the National Club Baseball Association.”
