CollClubSports Locks Up Partnership With Motel 6

Pittsburgh, PA - The leagues of CollClubSports are excited to announce its newest partnership with Motel 6. This month, Motel 6 became "The Official Lodging Partner" of the leagues of CollClubSports, including the NCBA, NCSA, NCFA, and the NCBBA.

With locations all over the country, partnering up with Motel 6 was an easy decision for CollClubSports. "We're extremely happy to have Motel 6 on board for the upcoming season and I really think our teams are going to get a lot out of this partnership," said CollClubSports Marketing Manager, Eric Curitore. "Unlike any of our previous hotel partners, you can find a Motel 6 property in almost any town across the country. It won't be hard for teams to find a great place to stay at a moment's notice. Motel 6 offers our teams fantastic amenities and opportunities for their lodging – all at exclusive discounted rates. We're excited with what this new partnership will do for our member teams!"

Even booking is a breeze for all teams. By simply accessing the exclusive portal (<https://www.motel6.com/en/cp/coll-club-sports.html>), all teams can take advantage of unbeatable prices and customer service. In addition, players and teams can sign up for Motel 6's program, "My6", and be able to expedite all of their booking needs!

"Motel 6 is proud to be the exclusive lodging partner of CollClubSports," says Kirsten Jenkins, Special Markets Manager at G6 Hospitality. "We're 'Leaving the Light On' for teams, officials, boosters, families and friends at over 1200 locations nationwide. The Motel 6 team is ready to offer a winning combination of great rooms at special rates. We look forward to welcoming all members of the association when traveling during official sports season, on the road to visit friends or family or anywhere your travels take you."
