Best Player Nickname: Reid "Beuter Perkins" Frick & Riley "Frocket Guy" Miller

2017-2018 Season Outlook: The Cardinals will boast one of the most explosive offenses the program has ever seen for the spring season. They bring back 8 of 9 starters including some pop in the middle of the order with Max Kerr (1B) and Kevin Roach (RF). The catching duties will finally be shored up with the one-two punch of Riley Miller and Sam Muhlenkamp behind the dish. After injuries over the past few seasons, the club will look for the experience of Roach, Greg Huss (2B), and Tanner Sizemore (P/OF) to help carry the team. For the team to reach its true potential, it will need to look for the starting rotation to step up with the help of Sharpe Marshall, Tom Olson, and Anthony DiSerio.

2017-2018 Season Outlook: Thomas Buck returns to the American diamond after a year overseas, leading a talented infield featuring a combination of veterans and newcomers. Paw Paw's finest are expected to command the outfield, with Jack Pelletier and promising transfer Parker Marcon looking to contribute in big ways. Behind the dish, the only question is who is catching and who is hitting dingers only, as Daniel KG and Eric Engel both provide the power in the Wolverines lineup. Sources say the Wolverines are working on improving overall team speed before they open the spring season on March 17 versus Central Michigan.
