After a very successful season last year, we look to build upon our reputation and compete with everyone. Our team lost only 8 players last season and we believe we have replaced these guys with players more than capable of stepping up and filling these roles.

Pitching has increased with new arms like John LeDew, Connor Hermida, and Christian Tompkins. D2 call ups from last season like Dalton Edgell and Connor Hogue look to fight for a starting spot. Returning pitchers all look to remain dominant throughout the season.

Our lineup is versatile and has a lot of guys that can hit well in any spot.

We are looking forward to starting the season.

Your playing small does not serve the world. There is nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people won't feel insecure around you. We are all meant to shine as children do. It's not just in some of us; it is in everyone. And as we let our own lights shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same. 2018 Season Outlook: The Hurricanes will be returning all but 2 of their players from the 2017 season which featured 6 freshman starters. After a tough 5-13 Spring '17, and a fall season severely limited by 5 weeks of no ball due to Hurricane Irma, the Canes will be more excited than ever to step between the lines come February. Their experience will carry them most of the way but the rookies address the glaring holes from last Spring: power hitting and a dominant bullpen. This is the most complete team top to bottom the Canes have had in a while and will look to beat teams 3 times each weekend, 3 different ways.

Location: Tallahassee, FL

Captain(s)/Coach(s): Tim Becker / Matt McSoley

2016-17 Performance:

- Record: 20-4
- Final Conference Ranking/World Series Results: 3rd
- Notables:

Number of Returning Players (Include conference/league award winners): Florida State has 16 returning players including 5 South Atlantic All-Region players, and one First Team All-American pitcher. We have a solid group of returners with a lot of playing time under their belts including playoff and World Series experience.

Players to Watch: Andrew Kunkler, Austin Schultz, Clay Gilman, Josuan Suarez, Sam Nadel, Tim Becker, SP Perry, and ET Maldonado. Kunkler is looking to repeat an incredible year where he earned First Team All-American honors with a 7-1 record and a 0.84 ERA. After a year off, Austin Schultz is looking to get back to his dominate ways on the mound and in the field. Schultz was a 2016 South Atlantic All-Region player. Gilman, in his final year of eligibility is looking to finish off his career with All-Region honors for the 4th time. He will be a staple at the top of the order as well as up the middle on defense. Suarez and Nadel are both returning for their second year after earning All-Region honors in the 2017 season, both will be key players in the infield and at the top of the lineup. Becker and Perry look to hold down the outfield for the Seminoles. Both coming off All-Region honors in the 2017 season, Becker hit .420 and led the region in RBI's with 29. Perry was a reliable bat in the order finishing the season with a .333 average. After spending the Fall as a walk-on with the varsity team, Maldonado is going to be a huge bat in the order and another staple in the infield.

New additions: Florida State added 14 new players for this season including 2 catchers, 7 pitchers, 2 infielders, and 3 outfielders. Many of these players previously played at the collegiate level and will create the depth needed to make a world series run.

Biggest Rival: UCF

Office: (412) 321-8440

Best Player Nickname: "I Always Score" - Joey Daidone. Daidone wreaks havoc on the bases scoring 99% of the time he reaches base. Scoring from first base on a pass ball is not uncommon for Daidone.

2018 Season Outlook: Florida State had an off year with a 20-4 record last season and we're looking to rebound with a World Series run like the 2015 and 2016 seasons. The mix of returning and new talent will hopefully allow us to return to the playoffs; ultimately, ending with a trip to Holly Springs, NC.

Manager Quote: We are looking to return to our winning ways this season, our only goal is a trip to the World Series. Last year we had a talented team but lacked depth, this year we have added depth and much more. Every player knows what it takes to get there, and we definitely have the team to accomplish this goal.
