2019-2020 Season Outlook: Win Mid-America West conference, compete at Regionals, and make a run at the 2020 World Series

Manager Quote: "We graduated a group of key players last year. As we move into the 2020 season, we are young but we have great team chemistry and a strong core of young players and talent. We are focusing on continuing to build around our young core with some key veterans expected to lead the team." - Troy Tolar, Head Coach

"This year will be like our 2018 season where we graduated a lot of starters, but again we have tons of young talent that came in to fill these spots. I believe with the team chemistry and core of players from last year that have postseason experience, we have a good balance of new and veteran players ready to continue where we left off last season." - Daniel Terao (P), President

Location: Ames, IA

Captain(s)/Coach(s): Nick Barclay, James Van Berkum

2018-2019 Performance (LAST SEASON):

- 2018-2019 Season Record: 16-9 oveal (12-3 conference)
- Final Conference Ranking/World Series Results: 2nd
- Notables: The 2018-2019 baseball season resulted in another regional apperiance for Iowa State making it our 3rd in a row. While we did not make it the world series, another regional apperance, gave the junior class a third year of post season experince. The season produced 2 seniors moving on that made all region honors. Anthony Sufficool (3rd) and Henry Dropps (1st)

Fall 2019 Performance (Should it be applicable)

- 2019 Fall Record (NCBA Sanctioned Games Only): 1-2
- Notables: In the fall we played the Iowa Hawkeyes. Our series did not go as planned winning one game out of three. The nwly fomed team showed a lot of good things. We believe the future is bright and even though we lost this series, we still have a strong chance for post season play.

Number of Returning Players (Include conference/league award winners): Returning award winner- Nick Barclay 3rd team all region. 14 players are returning from the 2018-2019 season.

Players to Watch: Nick Barclay, James Van Berkum, Jon Ferry, Thomas Anderson, Jon Barclay

New additions: This year we brought on 8 new guys to the team. The new guys bring added depth to the already tallented bullpen. Along with new arms we have skilled defensive players as well as great bats.

Players Include: Ben Wilkins, Brenden McDowell, Gabe Thomas, Joe Hansen, Kaleb Streigal, Nick Schwartz, Tyler Heinzerling, and Wes Benyshek

Biggest Rival: Iowa and Colorado State

Best Player Nickname: Nemo, Nick Schwartz

850 Ridge Avenue
Suite 301
Pittsburgh, PA 15212
Office: (412) 321-8440
Fax: (412) 321-4088

2019-2020 Season Outlook: The 2019-2020 season looks bright for the cyclones. Unlike years in the past the team will have great chemistry coming into January practices. This will help carry the team into spring break where we look to have our best performance yet. Following that we will begin conference play and look to start off the spring season with another long winning streak like last year. We have depth everywhere this year, which will allow us to be competitive and play with our best 9 on the field.

Manager Quote: "I am very excited for the spring season, the new guys have really bought into what this team is about. Come Florida, I think we will be more prepared than we ever have been to win the games we are in. Once conference play starts, I would like to see us win out the remainder of the games. Last year we lost one before the Iowa series, we've already played them, and I think we can improve upon that one lost game from last season. I am hoping to get the senior class to be the first Iowa State group to have made the post season in every season they played. It would be a great milestone for both the players and the club."-Nick Barclay

Pittsburgh, PA 15212
Office: (412) 321-8440
Fax: (412) 321-4088

The University of Iowa Baseball Club is coming off one of the best seasons in club history. The 2019/2020 season started in the right direction by winning our first conference series against Iowa State. The Hawkeyes are looking to continue the tradition of the program and stay humble from last season success.

Pitchers: The Hawkeye pitching staff will return all pitchers from last season. They will be led by: Connor Clark, Regan Fleisher, Danny Dworkin, Tom Knoke, Mark Primrose, and Connor Young closing out the veteran staff. They will be joined by rookie pitchers: Daniel Carlson, Evan Doyle, Vince Parcelli.

Catchers: The Hawkeye catching core will be Connor Clark and Tanner Natzke. The catchers have done a great job managing both the defense and the pitching staff. The catchers have been working hard on receiving, blocking, and throwing drills to prepare them for the upcoming season. They will be joined by rookie catcher: Will Dedobbelaere.

Infielders: The Hawkeye infield will be led by veterans: Alex Dichiser, Brandon Schleder, Mark Primrose, John May, Brock Hilton, and Derek Friestad. They will be joined by: Connor Lindaman, Jake Rood, and Grant Skinner. They have been incorporating several drills to work on their hands and footwork, combined with high intensity ground ball work with situational baseball. The infielders are working hard to limit the errors and solidify the defense.

Outfielders: The Hawkeye outfield will be led by veterans: Jack Cappalli, Joe Argo, Dawson Holkesvik, and Connor Young. They will be joined by: Nick Biacuzzo. The hardest part of being an outfielder, is the limitations with being indoors. The outfielders have been utilizing an ATEC R2 machine to improve their reads and footwork and getting as many reps as possible.

2019-2020 Season Outlook: After being promoted to Division I, the Gorillas look to continue the winning culture built in Pittsburg. Coming off a DII National Championship, the Gorillas compiled a 7-2 exhibition record in Fall 2019 with a 2nd Place finish at Wood Wars, the highest Wood Wars finish in team history. PSU took down 2019 DI World Series Semifinalist Texas A&M, Kansas, Houston CC, and Texas - San Antonio before falling in the Wood Wars finale. Seven returning starters have been surrounded by a very talented class of new additions. Including exhibition games, PSU is 14-3-1 all-time against current Mid- America South opponents and look to improve on that record moving into a very tough and competitive conference.

Key Games to Watch:

- 2/22/20: Conference series vs Truman State

- 2/29/20: Three game Non-Conference Seires vs Iowa

- 3/7/20: Conference series @ Missouri

- 4/11/20: Conference series @ Nebraska

- 4/18/20: Rivalry Conference Series vs Kansas

Manager Quote: “I’m very excited about this team. I’ve been a 4 year member and going into my last year I couldn’t be more excited to spend it than with this group. The amount of wins and trophies this program has in such a short time in phenomenal and this group is set on adding more hardware to the trophy case being built in the PSU Campus Rec Center. We’ve made our presence as a DI contender known at Wood Wars and we’re ready to get another banner to raise.”

Biggest Rival: All Conference Opponents

Best Player Nickname:

2019-2020 Season Outlook: After graduating several seniors last year, we will look to our remaining upperclassmen to lead the wave of new players. A lot of talent on this team in a lot of different areas. Looking to make a run into the playoffs.

Manager Quote: A good fall has us moving in the right direction towards conference play. We will look to a lot of new faces to step up big this season and rely on returning players to take us on a deep playoff run.
